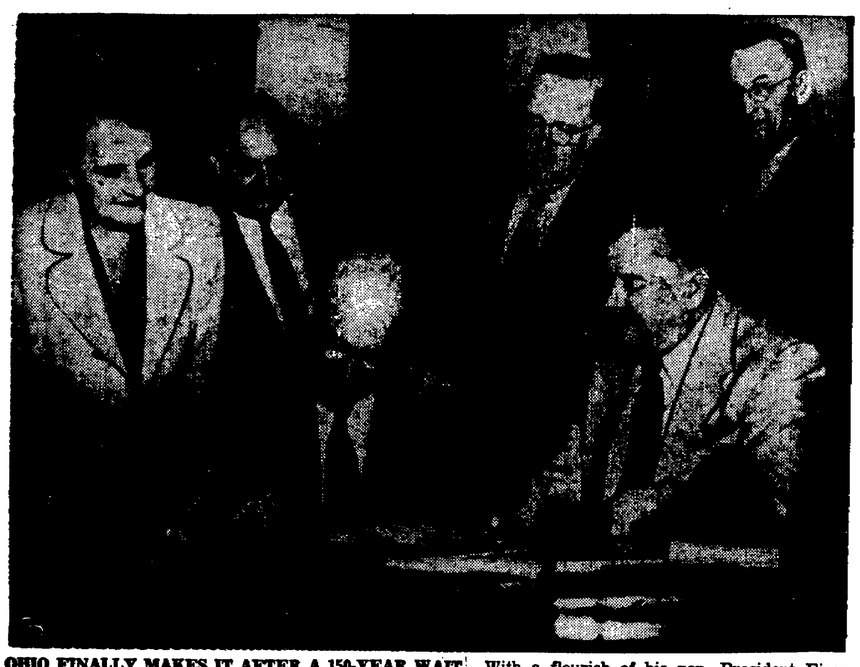
RUSSIA HAS H-BOMB, MALENKOV SAYS



OHIO FINALLY MAKES IT AFTER A 150-YEAR WAIT. With a flourish of his pen, President Eisenhower signs a bill formally admitting the state of Ohio into the Union—150 years late. Ohio, the "Mother of Presidents" and fifth largest in population, had never been proclaimed a state by Congress, although authorization for admission had been drawn up. The present Act of Congress designates March 1, 1803—the days the Ohio legislature first met—as the date of admission. Watching the President, who received the state's 25 electoral votes in the last election, are Ohio GOP representatives (from left) Frances Bolton, Frank T. Bow, Clarence Brown, George Bender (seated) and Paul Schenck.

Laughter, Joy Follow Men To Freedom

Last Group Includes 90 Americans; Better Health, Spirit Evident

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Some laughter and joy came to Panmunjom today as 90 Americans returned to freedom in obviously better health and spirits than those liberated in the first three days of the great Korean prisoner exchange.

There were few maimed and haggard men in today's group.

The Reds sent back 250 South Koreans, 90 Americans, 35 Turks and 25 British—a total of 400.

They said Sunday's group of 400 will include 250 ROKs, 112 Americans, 21 British, 13 Turks, 2 Australians, 1 Canadian and 1 Filipino.

The 112 Americans will be the biggest shipment of U. S. troops so far in four days of "Operation Big Switch" and will bring the total of Americans returned to 403.

The Reds have promised to send back 3,313 Americans among 12,763 Allied POWs.

So far, the four-day exchange has brought back a grand total of 1,205 ROKs, 311 Americans, 143 Turks, 126 British, 34 Filipinos, 21 Colombians, 7 French, 6 Australians, and 1 each Belgian, Canadian, Greek and South African.

The prisoners released Saturday rolled out of the north in Red trucks under a broiling sun.

One carried a skin drum and another wore a red and white cap, standing out brightly against the dull blue POW clothing.

Eighty were Negroes, many from the old 24th Regiment, disbanded two years ago when the Army abolished racial segregation.

The returnees were exuberant. "Well, well, old chap, Pall Malls, no less!" one quipped to Lt. Louis Balent of Summerville, N. J., when the military policeman dumped a carton of cigarettes into a helmet and passed them around.

"Be light, be bright! It sure is good to be back to this little piece of the old U. S.!"

"Man do you realize we are in the USA?" cried Pfc. Frank J. Quarles of Hopkinsville, Ky., as his truck pulled into the exchange point.

"I just can't keep my mouth shut," he said.

"It was a long trip and a sick one."

Seeing a convoy of singing Red North Koreans driving up the road, the Americans yelled and hooted.

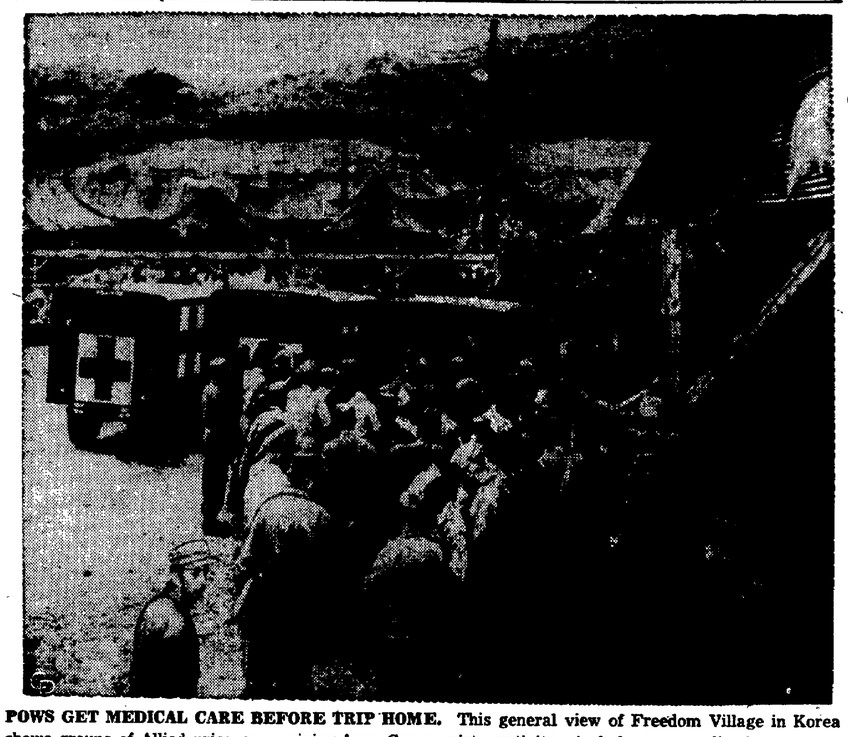
"We might as well sing, too—shall we give him a little blues, boys?"

A deeper note was struck by the Turks and South Koreans.

Their hatred of their captors was so intense that scores tore off their Chinese prison uniforms in spontaneous acts of defiance.

Communist prisoners, too, followed the urge to shed their garments, and the U. N. road from Munsan to Panmunom was littered with American Army gear—wool and cotton fatigue clothing, mess kits, toilet articles and almost everything else issued to the sullen Reds.

Poverty-stricken Korean civilians scavenged the gear.



POWS GET MEDICAL CARE BEFORE TRIP HOME. This general view of Freedom Village in Korea shows groups of Allied prisoners arriving from Communist captivity. Ambulances are lined up at the receiving area where the sick and wounded are prepared for transfers to hospitals.

Statement Is Made Before Red Deputies

U.S. Has Monopoly No Longer, Premier Informs Parliament

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Georgi Malenkov told a cheering Parliament today the Soviet has mastered production of the hydrogen bomb.

The Russian leader made the announcement during a surprise speech before a joint session of the Supreme Soviet.

He told the deputies the Soviet defense budget—even though less than last year—provided for giving "a crushing blow to any aggressor who wants to violate the peaceful life of the Soviet Socialist Republics."

(President Eisenhower, informed immediately of the report had no comment.

(The United States has never said officially it has developed a hydrogen bomb, which would carry many times the wallop of the atomic bomb. The AEC has said there has been experiments in certain thermonuclear devices, which has been taken to mean that work has been done on hydrogen bomb-like explosives. Rumors of a successful H-bomb explosion followed a series of tests last year in a Pacific Island group.)

Malenkov was given a rousing reception. He spoke quietly but quickly from a prepared text.

He brought cheers from the 1,300 deputies with the assertion:

"The United States no longer has the monopoly of the hydrogen bomb."

Malenkov made a direct reference to the ousting of Lavrenty P. Beria as deputy premier and minister of the interior. He said it was shortsighted to think the case of Beria showed any weakness in the Soviet state. Malenkov said that to have exposed and rendered harmless a master agent of imperialism was a demonstration of internal strength.

Malenkov once again declared the Soviet Union adheres to the principle that there are no outstanding controversial questions that cannot be solved by peaceful negotiation between interested states—including Soviet-American problems.

The Soviet premier said that after many years there is now felt a certain relaxation in the atmosphere of international affairs.

But, he declared, there are forces which put stakes in war and follow a strategy of cold war and atomic blackmail.

Malenkov termed the North Atlantic bloc the main danger to world peace and assailed what he called a United States policy of atomic blackmail.

Malenkov made the announcement in a speech devoted largely to economic matters but which touched also on defense. His appearance before both houses of Parliament came as a surprise.

(Moscow radio, which has been giving detailed reports on the meeting of the Supreme Soviet, had made no mention of Malenkov's surprise appearance before news reports emerged through censorship from Moscow).

The Soviet Union hinted as far

Hungry East Germans Flout Restrictions, Jam Into Berlin

Ohio Assembly Ends Session, Raps Lausche

Legislature Overrides Nine Vetoes, Slows Up Democratic Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Full of nostalgia and awareness of its place in history, the 100th Ohio General Assembly, in the state's sesquicentennial year, wound up its session last night by overriding nine of Gov. Frank J. Lausche's vetoes.

And, as if the overriding of nine of 12 vetoes was not enough, the Republican-controlled Legislature clobbered the Democratic governor's program again, by refusing to confirm his appointees to the three-member highway construction council. The group was created by the Republican Legislature to supervise the spending of about 43 million dollars a year in special highway taxes.

Only four of the vetoes the Republicans overrode were of general interest. They concerned acts to:

Permit the state to distribute to local governments about 12 million dollars a year for construction and maintenance of roads and streets in city, county and township highway systems. It was known as the Wheeler bill.

Set up a new state mental hygiene and corrections department divorced from the present welfare department. It was known as the Mosher bill.

Outlaw subversive organizations in Ohio and transfer investigations of subversives from the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission to the attorney general's office Jan. 31. It was known as the Devine bill.

Reorganize the state highway department and permit the highway director to be a non-engineer.

The highway construction council Lausche named would have authorized the spending of about 43 million dollars a year in new highway funds provided by this Legislature.

But, because the Senate refused to confirm the governor's appointees, he will be forced to name an entirely new board.

Sen. C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens), the eSnate majority leader, told newsmen the powerful Senate Rules Committee was disappointed in Lausche's appointments to the council.

The Rules Committee refused to

New Red Measures Fail To Halt Rush for Free Food

BERLIN (AP)—The Russian zone Communists reportedly clamped severe new restrictions on travel into Berlin today in a desperate attempt to prevent a weekend rush of East Germans to American free food stations here. But thousands of hungry and resourceful made it anyhow.

The newest Red measures aimed at stopping even cyclists and pedestrians from getting across the sector border. They were said to have been ordered after a one-week ban on the sale of railroad tickets and direct assaults by Red stormtroopers failed to smash the relief campaign.

Defying arrest and persecution, the East Germans thumbed their noses at the Communist police by finding or making new loopholes.

Lines formed at the food stations before midmorning and the vast giveaway was expected to pass the two-million-parcel mark over the weekend. Yesterday 108,000 parcels were distributed—64,000 to residents of the Russian occupation zone—bringing the total for 12 days to 1,865,000.

Four East zone railroad workers who arrived this morning from Erfurt, in Thuringia, and Wittenberg, in Saxony-Anhalt, to join the food queues reported the Communists had taken three new steps to reinforce their leaky blockade:

1. Heavy police controls were imposed on roads into Berlin in a 50-mile radius around the city to stop East German food seekers from coming in on foot, bicycling or hiding in truck trailers.

2. The big Potsdam terminus of the Berlin surface lines railroad stopped selling interurban tickets into Berlin. This closed a loophole to many East Germans who had been buying rail tickets from distant points to the Berlin suburbs, and then getting in via the suburban lines. Now only people with workers tickets who could prove they lived in Potsdam but were employed in Berlin, were permitted to ride into the city.

3. Trusted Communist plainclothes police were stationed in the rail ticket offices of all major Soviet zone cities to tighten enforcement of the week-old travel ban to Berlin. Orders were telegraphed from the East zone railroad headquarters in Berlin that any ticket agent violating the ban would be jailed.

Within a few hours many East Germans had discovered a new loophole. They rushed to a little streetcar line that runs from Potsdam, in the Rusianzone, to the American sector of Berlin. The jam there became so heavy that West Berlin officials ran special buses to haul the people in from the border to the food stations.

Widespread Communist persecution continued against people who took the American aid. In some places, pensions and other public aid were cut off in reprisal.

150 Youngsters Await Starter's Flag at Akron

16th Annual Soapbox Derby Scheduled for Tomorrow Afternoon

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Late tomorrow afternoon a kid in a little motorless homemade racer will glide down a long green three-lane track, just a shade ahead of two other little racers.

The checker flag will wave, and some 60,000 spectators will be yelling so loud that no one can hear the scrape of three drag brakes on the concrete.

Fairly boiling with excitement, the kid will help load his little car on a big truck for the ride up the 975.4-foot course of Derby Downs. There on topside, by the starting bridge, there will be a flurry of flowers, microphones, cameras and general confusion. It will be the champ's big moment in the 16th annual running of the All-American Soapbox Derby. Tomorrow night, at a banquet for all the boys, he will get a $5,000 college scholarship.

What will the new champ be like,

Marion Derby Winner Ready For U.S. Finals

Sunday afternoon Phillip Blue, Marion's 1953 Soap Box Derby champion will sail down the Derby Downs runway in Akron, along with other local Derby winners throughout the nation for the National Soap Box Derby championship.

Phillip, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Blue of LaRue, will be driving his sleek black racer for the Marion Lions Club and a crack at the $5,000 scholarship awarded the winner.

For winning the Marion race he received an expense paid trip to Akron, where he has spent the last two days in trial runs, meeting other contestants and having a good time.

Between 25 and 30 other Marion boys will travel to Akron today or tomorrow to watch the Derby from the sidelines. The Marion Lions Club gave all the boys who participated in the Marion race a free ticket to the Derby if they wanted to go.

The Marion Engineer Depot is furnishing a special bus for all boys who raced under the Depot name. The bus will leave for Akron about 8 Sunday morning.

Other Marion boys will be traveling to Akron with their sponsors or their parents.

Phillip Blue is accompanied by his parents and in Akron with them is Fred Harden, chairman of the Derby, and Dick Lister, assistant chairman, sent by the Marion Lions Club.

One 'Stool Pigeon' Killed

Fear of Retaliation Kept Some POW's, GI's Report

FREEDOM VILLAGE, Korea, (AP)—An American soldier freed by the Communists today said three fellow Americans stayed behind in North Korea not because they were Communist converts but because they feared retaliation from fellow captives.

Another liberated POW said he knew of one captive killed by fellow prisoners because he was a "stool pigeon."

"We had quite a bit of that," said Cpl. Tommie Hampton of Chicago.

M. Sgt. Louie M. Leach of Columbus, Ga., was asked by newsmen if he felt the three who stayed behind did so because they feared retaliation from fellow captives.

"You're damned right I think so," Leach said bitterly. "We told them we would throw them over the side of the ship. There's guys up there who would give their lives to get even."

Another POW, Cpl. Roosevelt Powell Jr., 25, of Okmulgee, Okla., said the three informed on fellow captives.

"They tried hard to get information," Powell said, "and we tried to keep it from them."

Others of the 90 Americans, including 80 Negroes, who came back Saturday from North Korean prison camps added a new twist to life in the Red stockades—the smoking by some captives of a narcotic weed, possibly marijuana.

They said prisoners held at Pyoktong on the Yalu River just south of Manchuria found the weed—which gave an intoxicating effect when smoked — while on wood gathering forays outside the compounds.

Pfc. Robert I. Brooks, 23, of Reidsville, S. C., said the Chinese "could have stopped" its use "if they had really wanted to."

Another liberated POW, Cpl. Albert Dixon, 26, of Manchester, Iowa, declared the Reds had made some effort to stop the practice.

Brooks said he thought the Communists encouraged its use "because if they figured they could make a junkie out of you, you would be willing to do what they wanted."

Some prisoners said only a few men smoked the weed, but Pvt. Willie J. Rudd of Los Angeles told newsmen that at one time in his camp the Reds isolated 50 prisoners in a special narcotics ward.

Pvt. Godfrey Jones of Scarboro, W. Va., likened the weed to hashish or East Indian hemp smoked in many Oriental countries for its intoxicating effects.

Dixon said the weed reacted on

Placed Rocks, Ties on Erie Tracks

Holycross Also Admits Attempt To Derail Train

Paul Edwin Holycross, 18, already charged with 10 counts of arson and attempted arson, today is faced with the possibility of federal charges of two attempts to derail railroad trains.

The youth was questioned yesterday and last night by Henry Smith, captain of the Erie Railroad police, FBI agents, and Marion police concerning apparent attempts to derail trains on the Erie's Dayton Division July 24 and 30.

Special Agent Norman McCabe, in charge of the Cleveland FBI office, said Holycross admitted placing a large tree limb and some stones on the tracks near Clinton St. on July 24, and some cross ties on the tracks about one-fourth mile east of Green Camp on July 30.

McCabe said today he did not know what if any federal charges will be filed against the Marion youth, that this decision would be in the hands of the U. S. Attorney's office at Toledo.

In the July 24 attempt, a southbound freight train struck the tree limb and rocks and knocked them clear of the tracks about 11 p.m. In the other case, trainmen saw the ties in time and stopped their train to remove them from the tracks, investigators reported. This was about 7:30 a.m. last Saturday.

As in the case of the six industrial plant fires which Holycross admitted he set in Marion in June and early July, he said he placed the obstructions on the railroad tracks "just to have something to do."

During the questioning yesterday he took the investigators to the scenes of the attempted derailings and showed them exactly how he placed the obstructions on the tracks, McCabe said.

McCabe said Erie police called

Dulles Pledges U.S. To Fight If Reds Attack

Signs Security Pact With Rhee in Event Korean Truce Broken

SEOUL (AP) — A treaty pledging America's military might in defense of war-battered South Korea if Red armies break the truce and attack again was initialed here today.

The mutual security pact, which must win U. S. Senate approval, was initialed by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and ROK Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai.

The ceremonies in President Syngman Rhee's hillside mansion climaxed four days of important conferences between Rhee and Dulles.

It came as U.N. headquarters in New York announced that 16 Allied nations with troops in Korea have promised to take up arms again in the event of a new Communist attack. But Britain and Canada later hedged their commitment.

Dulles and Rhee, in a oint statement issued as the security pact was initialed, hailed their work as "an important contribution to the development of independence and freedom in the Far East."

They also announced a United States-Korea agreement to walk out of the forthcoming political conference if both feel after 90 days that the Communists are "exploiting" efforts to achieve peace in Korea.

Dulles, his mission to Korea completed, flew to Tokyo Saturday evening on the first leg of his trip back to Washington.

Dulles said he and Japanese Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida would meet Saturday night to "talk over matters of common concern, both relating to Japan and to the free world position in the Far East."

Dulles promised another statement before leaving Japan for Washington Sunday.

The security pact agreed upon by Dulles and Rhee provides for basing American troops in Korea. But the secretary of state told a news conference that "we want to get our armed forces home as soon as is consistent with our responsibilities."

Dulles and his advisers also discussed with South Korean leaders a vast program of economic aid planned by the United States to rebuild the war-shattered land. The three to four-year program contemplates one billion dollars in American aid, of which 200 million

Elevator Case Review Asked In Higher Court

Marion County Commissioners have asked the Court of Appeals to consider a Common Pleas Court ruling ordering them to install an elevator in the Marion County Courthouse.

This was revealed when Ralph Carhart, Marion County prosecuting attorney representing the commissioners, filed a notice of appeal Friday in the Third District Court of Appeals.

Filing of the appeal notice is the most recent development in the elevator situation at the Courthouse.

First step was the filing of a motion on April 16 in Common Pleas Court by a Marion County Bar Association committee requesting the court to review Courthouse facilities.

Rules One Necessary

The motion specifically requested the court to inquire into the necessity of an elevator in the Courthouse.

Following a hearing May 7, Common Pleas Judge Paul D. Smith ruled that an elevator was "not only a necessary facility for the efficient performance of the functions of the courts, but the court is convinced that the installation will be a progressive step toward securing physical facilities so badly needed by most other county offices" housed in the building.

Judge Smith's order, which did not become official until a journal entry was filed July 30, was directed to Ray Reidenbaugh, Luther Mitchell and Howard McCurdy as commissioners of Marion County. It set March 1, 1954 as the deadline for installation of the elevator, and Jan. 15, 1954 as the deadline for a written report from the commissioners.

Would Raise $50,000

On July 27 the commissioners signed a resolution authorizing the placement of a one-half mill levy on the ballots this November as a means of obtaining necessary funds for the elevator's installation.

This levy, if passed by the voters, is expected to raise an estimated $50,000 and would appear

Wet Weather Continues; More Showers Forecast

Last night's thundershower dropped more than half an inch of rain on Marion and marked the 18th day of rain since July 18, the Marion weather station reported today.

It has rained every day this month but one and more showers and thunderstorms are expected. The forecast for today and Sunday is for showers and cooler temperatures. The low tonight is expected to be between 58 and 64 degrees.

'Bit Surprised,' At News, Says U.S. Scientist

CHICAGO (AP)—A Chicago atomic scientist who helped develop the world's first nuclear reaction said today he would be a "bit surprised" if Russia has mastered production of a hydrogen bomb "so soon."

But Dr. Herbert L. Anderson of the University of Chicago added that, "I see no reason to believe if Malenkov's statement is not true today it will not be next year." he added:

"We must expect that ultimately if we can make the H—bomb so can the Russians. Nothing stands in their way except figuring out how to do it. They have the industrial potential, the scientific background and the raw materials to do it."

Anderson, professor of physics in the university's Institute for Nuclear Studies, worked closely with Enrico Fermi in building the first atomic pile at the University of Chicago in 1942. This atomic pile was the forerunner of the atom bomb.

Confident Living

By NORMAN V. PEALE

How To Pray for Peace

A few years ago a New York publisher was about to issue a book with the title "The Man Who Bought the Plaza." Although the volume had been rushed from its author through the press, before it could be sent out to the bookstores the entire first edition had to be reprinted so that it could be reissued under the new name, "The Man Who Bought the Waldorf."

DR. PEALE

This is just one sidelight on the career of building one of the world's greatest hotel chains when he bought New York's famous and fashionable Plaza Hotel, and then upset the publication of his biography by going on to get control of the same city's best-known hotel, the Waldorf-Astoria. And this interesting Texan is not content with that achievement—Porto Rico's Caribe Hilton Hotel is the first step in a worldwide program of building Hilton hotels from Madrid to Istanbul.

Conrad Hilton's success has had its foundation in a strong faith in God and in the power of prayer. In the July issue of Guideposts magazine, published at Pawling, N.Y., he tells the story of how he came to publish an Independence Day prayer for peace under the title "America on its Knees." I cannot retell that fascinating story here, but I do want to give you that prayer in the hope that you will get on your knees and add your voice to those of the thousands of Americans who have already used it:

"Our Father in Heaven:

"We pray that You save us from ourselves.

"The world that you made for us, to live in peace, we have made into an armed camp. We live in fear of war to come.

"We are afraid of the terror that flies by night, and the arrow that flies by day, the pestilence that walks in darkness and the destruction that wastes at noonday.

"We have turned from You to go our selfish way. We have broken Your commandments and denied Your truth. We have left Your altars to serve the false gods of money and pleasure and power. Forgive us and help us.

"Now, darkness gathers around us and we are confused in all our counsels. Losing faith in You, we lose faith in ourselves.

"Inspire us with wisdom, all of us, of every color, race and creed, to use our wealth, our strength, to help our brother, instead of destroying him.

"Help us to do Your will as it is done in heaven and to be worthy of Your promise of peace on earth.

"Fill us with new faith, new strength, and new courage, that we may win the battle for peace.

"Be swift to save us, dear God, before the darkness falls."

Conrad Hilton will send you a copy of this prayer in a color reprint illustrated by a beautiful painting of Uncle Sam on his knees in prayer if you will write to him at 9970 Santa Monica Boulevard, Beverly Hills, Calif. Why not write to him and get your copy today? Let's sow America knee deep in this moving prayer to the God of our fathers.

In a troubled world, all of us will do well to pray for peace. And for God's guidance for our beloved country. Whether you choose to use Conrad Hilton's prayer or words of your own, your faith in God and your prayers can help make the world the peaceful and beautiful place God meant it to be.

DUNKING BANNED

HINGHAM, Mass. (U.P.)—A depainting firm here, which specializes in removing paint and varnish by dunking the objects in a newly developed solution, has been asked to de-paint a Connecticut River bridge—without dunking it, please!

Instead, the company has decided to spray the span at Chicopee, Mass. with the new chemical, which can soften as many at 12 layers of old varnish, and then wash it down with steam.

PERFECT BALANCE

KENTLAND, Ind. (UP) — When Wilbur Hays looked out of his window during a violent windstorm he saw a 40-foot limb of a nearby tree sailing through the air, but couldn't see where it landed. Later, he found it balanced perfectly atop the roof of his house.

HELICOPTER CRASHES. A helicopter, participating in a naval show for visiting governors, hits the water a short distance from the reviewing stand after the pilot lost control in Seattle, Wash. Lt. Conrad Larson of Boston, the pilot, and Machinist Mate 2/c William S. Robertson of Seattle were rescued by another helicopter and crash boat. Neither was seriously injured. Pieces of the rotor can be seen flying through the air.

County Polio Case Reported

Green Camp Boy, 8, Becomes 13th Victim

The fifth case of polio recorded by Marion County Health Board officials was reported today. The latest victim is Craig Reginald Smith, 8, of Green Camp.

The boy was taken to Children's Hospital in Columbus Friday where his illness was diagnosed as polio. He had been ill since Wednesday, his parents told health board officials.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Smith, and a three year-old brother have been given gamma globulin shots. Eight city cases have been reported this year bringing the total in the county to 13.

This is the second case of polio recorded by the county board this week. The other one was Mrs. Arlene Longacre who lives east of the city. Marion City Health Department also reported one case during the week, eight-months-old Gerald Parker. Both cases were reported Tuesday.

Church Plans Tent Services

Maranatha Crusade Set To Open Sunday

Start of a Gospel Tent Crusade of the Maranatha Bible Church at Garfield Park will be marked Sunday afternoon, under leadership of guest workers, Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Gray of Dennison, O.

The large tent will be moved to the park from Camp Owens where it has been in use for the Maranatha Bible Camp. Rev. Earl N. Holliday, Maranatha Church pastor, was in charge of the Bible Camp which closed today after providing a program of activities for 134 campers in charge of 34 staff members. Certificates were given campers who finished the course of study.

First service at the park will be Sunday at 2:30. The Grays will be in charge the first two weeks as evangelists, children's workers, and musicians. Meetings will be nightly at 7:30, with Robert Stanger, a Moody Bible Institute man, as special accordionist in charge of song service. He and Mrs. Gray and local musicians will present instrumental and vocal numbers.

Saturday nights will be Youth Night, with religious films shown.

During the period of the tent meeting, there will be no evening services at the Maranatha Church. On Sundays, Bible School will be at 9:30 a.m., and morning worship at the church at 10:45. Young people of the church have assumed the obligation of distributing tracts, visitation, and publicity for the meetings.

Open air meetings will be conducted in connection with the tent series in public locations in the city, and the special crusade will close on Labor Day with an all-day Bible conference.

75-Year-Old Ohio War Veteran Ends 4,450-Mile Voyage

CLEVELAND (AP) — Salt water, fresh water, it's all the same to Harvey H. Hecker.

Harvey says he had "a heck of a lot of kicks" out of his 4,450-mile trip around the eastern half of the United States.

He's the 75-year-old who lives at the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors Home in Sandusky. A Spanish War veteran, he once was an engineer.

Got the wanderlust last year, he did, and put a 15-foot boat together from a kit he bought from a mail order house. Put an outboard motor on it, and last November shoved off down the Ohio River from Portsmouth.

Down the Ohio and Mississippi, out into the Gulf and around Florida, up the Intra-Coastal Waterways to New York, over the Erie Canal, back along the shore of Lake Erie. Now there are only 60 miles to home.

Next comes an overhaul for the boat in Sandusky, then a visit to Chicago for some radio and television programs. And when the urge comes, another leisurely trip down the Mississippi, and over to Florida again.

LUCKY TOWN

BELMONT, Mass. (UP) — This town of 25,000 population has had more than 1,500 automobile accidents during the past seven years —but not one of them involved a fatality.

Hershey, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Marion and director of the ranchette, will be the speaker. His subject will deal with Bible prophecy. Special music will be featured.

LOST AND FOUND

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (UP) — Bennie Bright, 13, saw something familiar when he delivered the Sunday newspaper to police headquarters here. It was his bicycle, which had been stolen, abandoned and recovered. Bennie hadn't even missed it.

Six Special Issues Approved By County Board of Elections

Six special issues have been accepted for placement on the ballots in November by the Marion County Board of Elections.

They include three half-mill levies submitted by Marion County Commissioners.

The first one is for the construction, acquistion and installation of an elevator in the courthouse and would appear on the tax duplicates for one year.

The second levy is for the construction, reconstruction, enlargement and extension of County buildings, and especially a hospital unit for the Marion County Home. This levy would run for three years.

The third levy requested by commissioners is an operating levy to provide funds for anticipated increased current operating expenses of the county. This, too, would appear on the duplicates for three years.

Prospect School Levy

A fourth issue accepted by the elections board for placement on the November ballots is a four and one-half mill levy requested by the Prospect Local Board of Education. Aimed at providing funds for general operating expenses, this levy would run for five years. It is a renewal of an existing levy of three mills and an increase of one and one-half mills.

Also to appear on the ballots is a three-mill levy requested by the Green Camp Local School District for current operating expenses. This is a reduction of one mill over the expiring four-mill levy, and would appear on the tax duplicates for five years.

In order to provide money for current expenses for the village of Green Camp, a levy of four mills will appear on the November ballots. If passed, this levy will appear for five years on the duplicates. Levy money will be used to provide street lighting for Green Camp.

These six special issues were approved by the Board of Elections at a meeting Wednesday night.

Caledonia Levy Asked

Filed Thursday with the Board of Election was a two-mill levy to run for five years for current operating expenses for the village of Caledonia. Funds from this levy will be used to provide street lighting for Caledonia. The board has not yet acted on this levy.

An additional school board nominating petition filed and accepted by the elections board Wednesday was that of LeRoy Montgomery who is a candidate for a post on the New Bloomington Local School District board.

A request from T. W. Stayner for withdrawal of his nominating petition for the office of Green Camp Township Trustee was granted by the elections board. Reason for the withdrawal request was given as ill health.

Government Seeks To Halt Dope Racket

Flow of Narcotics From Red China To U.S. Continuing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal agents have been struggling for more than a year to dam a persistent flow of dope from Communist China to the U. S. West Coast via Hong Kong.

Government officials told reporters of this battle Friday after the Narcotics Bureau made public its annual report for 1952 on traffic in opium and other dangerous drugs.

The report said simply that "pure heroin has appeared in the traffic on the West Coast in considerable quantities," and added:

"The source of this heroin is Communist China."

B. T. Mitchell, the bureau's enforcement officer, said the heroin traffic by way of Hong Kong, a British crown colony, was first noticed when customs inspectors wondered why anybody would want to mail old American magazines back to this country.

It turned out the magazines were hollowed and filled with vials containing about an ounce of heroin each.

Heroin is one of many drugs made from opium. In its pure state, it is worth about $1,000 an ounce.

Chinese in Hong Kong, Mitchell said, sent the dope mainly to other Chinese in this country. Post office boxes were rented in small, out-of-the-way towns to receive it, he said.

U. S. agents here and abroad have been cooperating with Hong Kong police and there have been many arrests. But Mitchell, said it is hard to tell just what headway is being made toward choking off the illicit traffic.

Use of the mails to ship the narcotic has been sharply reduced, bureau officials said, but heroin is still smuggled from the Far East by merchant seamen and other travelers across the Pacific.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1953

177 Years Later

In his report to the nation at the end of the congressional session, President Eisenhower says his administration has made "little more than a beginning" since last Jan. 20.

This tone of apparent apology for not making over the United States between a January thaw and an August drought may become a political issue. This might be the proper time to recall that the United States is in the last quarter of its second century of existence.

It might even be the time for some of us to expect more men in public life to take a long view, instead of pretending that a complex society of 160 million persons can be operated by fits and starts like a Kiddie Kar.

A sense of history would help all the trustees of popular sovereignty in this republic to understand that politicians do not make but only confirm public opinion.

When voters installed a new administration last November, they did not repudiate everything its predecessors had done. They had and still have a clearer sense of history than any politician who could think that.

Even the now-famous "bloodless revolution" of the first New Deal in the early thirties, viewed by hindsight, was scarcely more than a catching-up to events of the twenties—a confirmation of ideas which had become common currency in public opinion.

When the New Dealers finally went too far and outdistanced public opinion, they were repudiated. That could be a lesson for those who may be tempted to make the same mistake with their mandate.

President Eisenhower is aware of the possibility and has warned against it. It has become his political role to be the spokesman for a moderate point of view.

It is the destiny of the Republican party, if its leaders know how to take advantage of history, to become the party of moderation.

Its first objective must be to create an atmosphere in which moderation can be made to seem more attractive than the sweaty, panting extremism that has characterized the politics of the mid-20th century — extremism which infected even the politics of the United States.

That is what President Eisenhower is trying to do. If he feels he must apologize because his administration has not made over America in seven months, it is because he realizes he is under the fire of extremists who would like to make it over every two years, to fit their peculiar and widely varying specifications of paradise.

Assembly Left It to Lausche

The Ohio Assembly took no action before final adjournment to change the governor's power to appoint a successor to Robert A. Taft to represent Ohio in the U. S. Senate. That was wise.

Even if Gov. Lausche were not trustworthy in the matter, it would have been a politically fishy procedure to change the rules after the event which brought them into play.

The fact is that whoever Gov. Lausce appoints will serve in only the second session of the 83rd Congress, unless he seeks and wins popular approval for unexpired term in the general election of 1954.

While his party affiliation will be of vital importance because of the hairbreadth political balance in the U. S. Senate, he will inherit none of the prestige or responsibilities which had been acquired by Sen. Taft.

The new Ohio senator must make his own prestige and earn his own responsibility. He must do this either by sheer ability or by the slower method of seniority.

When Ohio sent Robert Taft to the U. S. Senate in 1939, he was relatively unknown, having served only briefly in the General Assembly many years before. Yet, within a few months the incisiveness of his thinking had been recognized with appointments to key committees. By 1944 he was being talked about as presidential material.

Ohio's principal interest, which Gov. Lausche shares, is to make certain that Sen. Taft's successor should be able to make a comparable contribution to the welfare of the United States.

Equity in Tax Relief

The moving picture industry's troubles will not be eased by repeal of the 20 per cent federal tax on movie tickets. The congressional decision to grant unilateral tax relief for the benefit of this one segment of the amusement industry has been set aside by a presidential veto.

It was the near-certainty of such a veto which let the proposal slide through Congress. No congressmen could have been unaware of the importance of equity in tax relief, or President Eisenhower's position on it.

That was the underlying reason why the excess profits tax on corporations was not allowed to expire — because it would have been inequitable to give tax relief to corporations without giving tax relief to individuals.

It would have been just as inequitable to give tax reliex to the movie industry without giving it to other divisions of the entertainment industry, especially in the light of one known fact: That the movies had no intention of passing tax relief along to the members of their audiences.

Allied Unity Can Salvage Korean Armistice

The armistice signed in Korea isn't worth the paper it is written on.

Concrete evidence of the faithlessness of the barbarian Communists who put their signatures on the document now has become known to the world.

For, on April 11, 1953, the Communist command in Korea pledged itself in writing as follows:

"The Korean People's Army and the Chinese People's Volunteers shall deliver sick and injured captured personnel at the rate of approximately 100 a day until delivery of all sick and injured captured personnel to be repatriated by the Korean People's Army and the Chinese People's Volunteers is completed.

"The number of persons actually delivered each day shall be contingent upon the ability of the United Nations command to receive them, but delivery shall in any case be completed prior to the termination date of this agreement."

Another provision stipulated that the agreement was "effective when signed and will terminate 20 days after the commencement of repatriation of sick and injured captured at Panmunjom."

The repatriation began on April 17, and the 20 days were up on May 7.

Yet on Tuesday of this week there began an exchange of supposedly healthy prisoners, and the dispatches from Korea tell of the delivery of Americans and South Koreans to our lines in such bad physical condition that their illnesses and their wounds and their weakened bodies plainly could not all have developed since May 7, 1953.

The whole world knows now that the United Nations has been tricked and deceived with respect to the delivery of sick and wounded prisoners.

What is more significant is that Gen. Mark Clark, Far Eastern commander, has disclosed through a press conference in Washington that, when the Communists declared they had only 3,313 Americans, he had asked Washington to tell him what to do and the word came back to go ahead and accept that figure. At the same time, Gen. Clark reveals, there was information available pointing to the fact that from 2,000 to 3,000 more Americans were being held prisoners.

The decision, he says, was made by the U.S. and the U.N. to accept the 3,313 and to make a protest after the armistice agreement was signed.

No word of this was allowed to leak out at the time to the American people or to the peoples of allied countries. Misleading of public opinion is not infrequent even in the "free world."

So anxious was the U.N. apparently to get an armistice at any cost that the policy adopted was to take whatever the Communists offered and hope for the best afterward.

This means, unfortunately, that, if the Communists still hold 2,000 to 3,000 Americans as prisoners, they have played one of the cruelest jokes that a gangster regime in its most fiendish moments could devise.

It suggests that the 2,000 to 3,000 now will be held for ransom and, unless peace terms acceptable to the Communists are granted, the prisoners will never be returned to their homes.

This kind of leverage is understandable among Orientals. The "truce" technique is an old one in China, and the American government should have known by reason of what has happened in China's civil war that a "truce is merely a device to gain further objectives."

Now the U.N. is faced with a humiliating defeat at the so-called "political conference" before it even begins.

The question is asked: "Should hostilities be renewed when the political conference fails?"

It isn't at all necessary to resume hostilities. The theory of an enlarged war is one of the invalid assumptions usually attributed to anyone who ventures to suggest that the "cold war" can be won in other ways.

It could have been won and can be won provided the Allies are faithful to each other and provided the U.N. is realistic about the difference between fidelity and treason among its members.

An embargo on all trade with the Red Chinese and upon their ally—the Soviet Union—would be pressure enough to force a complete change in the viewpoint of the Communists.

Such pressure can be supplemented by a blockade by the navies ofthe U.N. but, so long as Britain's commercial interests, who apparently control both major parties in England, can insist on trading with the enemy and on the admission of Red China to the Security Council of the U.N., barbarism will have the upper hand in the Communist Far East.

The major powers unquestionably have lost face in Asia by their policies of timidity and appeasement.

Any policy they adopt now is bound to be doubly difficult. It is known everywhere that the attitude of submissiveness by the U.N. arose despite the knowledge its member governments must have had all along about the treatment of prisoners.

The tales of horrow which are being brought back by returned prisoners indicate that, while the enemy may still hold 2,000 to 3,000 Americans who are presumably alive, the other 5,000 or more making up the total of 8,705 officially listed as missing in action were probably murdered.

Already returning prisoners tell of mass graves where their comrades were buried after unspeakable torture and cruelty.

That's the responsibility of the two Communist forces whose commanders put their signatures just a few days ago on the armistice agreement—a scrap of paper that now can be expected to be breached in other respects as time goes on.

This Shorter Skirt Matter

By TRUMAN TWILL

Like the other men I have talked to about this matter of shortening women's skirts, I have no interest one way or the other in the economics of fashion.

None of us owns any stock in the women's wear business or has anything to gain or lose if fashions change. Contrary to a common impression, a middle - class married man takes it in the neck about so deep each year for his wife's clothing, regardless of fashion changes.

The killing from a radical change is made in high - fashion circles where a female clothes horse can afford to ditch a whole wardrobe to stay in the swim. In our set, the girls are mighty cute about making over their mother hubbards and hooverettes from one season to the next.

But the men in our set have their ideas about this, and it would be a pity if no one voiced them.

The men do not care what any poised - pinkie - poof in Paris says about fashion, the best fashion in the Christian era—and we don't mean Dior—is the one that makes women look the way they've been looking for the last few years.

Men despise too-short skirts because they make women look ungraceful and hoydenish. Men despise too-long skirts because they make women look like refugee witches from a road company of "Macbeth."

Men do not like any kind of padding which puts lumps where nature did not intend that lumps should be. Men think nature knows more about lumps than the prancy-dancies in the couturier parlors.

Men do not take to styles which suggest extremism. Hobble skirts, picture hats, low waist lines, high waist lines, shoulder pads, funny sleeves and funny skirts leave men chilled and a little ill.

Men are not vain enough to believe that women dress to please them, because men eventually learn that a woman's primary aim in choosing her clothes is to impress women. When it is a matter of pleasing men, women have more intricate weapons to carry into battle than the output of the ready - to - wear industry or even the one - to - a -customer salons.

All that any reasonable man expects out of the fashion racket is an even break. The women can wear whatever they please as long as it does not make them as witchy and unattractive as they have been in some of the get-ups they have relied on to give their deadly rivals fits since the United States saved the world the first time.

Fortunately, most women seem to agree that their wisest course is to stick reasonably close to the styles now in vogue, with moderate variations. They will encounter no resistance if they dip into the family budget for something that makes them look as good as they've been looking, minus depreciation.

But if they let themselves be euchered into having to suggest to their husbands that the family sugar bowl should be cleaned for a get-up to make them look like extras for a costume drama on summer Teevee, there will be a husbandly howl that will rattle the fragile sensibilities of every designer who understands profanity and Anglo-Saxon.

It was not the intention to make this sound like a threat. But as one husband who has stuck with his lollipop through skirts down to here, then up to here, through waistlines that hung 'way down here, then way up. . . quit, you're tickling. . . there is a limit to how much a male can stand.

She looks good the way she is, see. See?

Atomic Dreams Fading

By Michael Amrine

Eight years ago "the force that powers the sun and the stars" was harnessed in the form of an atomic bomb and dropped upon the Japanese city of Hiroshima.

Some idea of the pressures of the atomic age the bomb ushered in can be conjectured from a look at the present whereabouts of the leading scientists who produced the bomb.

All had spent their previous lives as physics professors in the quiet of ivy-covered university laboratories.

Then as "atomic scientists," they were sworn to secrecy, flown around the country, and back and forth across the Atlantic, and subsequently honored as creators of man's greatest technical achievement.

Glenn Seaborg, of the University of California, who pioneered in the creation of the man-made bomb element, plutonium, has been awarded the Nobel Prize.

Dr. Henry D. Smyth, of Princeton University, author of the famous Smyth report, is the only one who has become a peacetime administrative leader — for years he has been a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Young Dr. Louis A. Slotin, who was expected to become one of the great names of science, is dead—he died in two weeks, after receiving an incurable dose of radiation while working on bomb assembly at Los Alamos, N. M., a few months after the war had ended.

One, whose name has become a house-hold word in the Western World, is in prison as a traitor—Klauss Emil Fuchs, German - born naturalized British citizen.

Dr. Robert Bacher, for years a professor at Cornell, assembled the first test bomb in New Mexico with his own hands, later became a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, and is now back on the quiet campus of the California Institute of Technology.

Enrico Fermi, Italian - born Nobel laureate, is at the University of Chicago, still producing new theories on the nucleus of the atom.

Dr. Albert Einstein, whose master theory provided the groundwork for the modern development of physics, and whose letter started the bomb project, has since the war said that if he had known how far Hitler's Germany was from producing the bomb, he would not have been persuaded that we should make one.

Dr. Leo Szilard, who did the persuading of Dr. Einstein, has left the field of physics, and returned to the science he studied as a youth years ago—biology.

Sick of bombs and of war, his state of mind may be judged by a science-fiction story he has written, in which a fictional scientist has discovered a way in which human beings can put themselves to sleep and hibernate for hundreds of years.

In Szilard's story, people who think the world may be a better place 500 years from now can avail themselves of this super-sleeping pill, and knockoff for a few centuries.

It is hard to escape the impression that Dr. Szilard, one of several Hungarian physicists who are among the world's leaders who helped America make the bomb, would like to take a leave of absence and come back when the atomic age is older and men are wiser and get along better.

Dr. Edward Teller, another Hungarian, is the only scientist of the first rank who has fought through the years for making the superbomb—the hydrogen bomb which apparently is nearly perfected. Years ago he said: "The first bomb did not seem big enough to make mankind give up war—but if we can make one which destroys whole states, perhaps they will learn their lesson."

Perhaps.

J. Robert Oppenheimer, the philosopher - scientist who headed the bombmaking crew at Los Alamos, now heads the Princeton Institute of Advanced Study.

In recent years he has become the favorite technical adviser of the Atomic Energy Commission, the Pentagon, Congress, and our mission to the U.N., and he has contributed little to research since the war except through organization and leadership in helping others to do it.

Dr. Harold C. Urey, discoverer of heavy hydrogen, is with Fermi at the University of Chicago, directly across the street from the famous squash court at Stagg Field, where the first sustained chain reaction was produced 10 years last December.

He has turned from affairs of 1953 to a study of the origins of the earth and the stars and is now a controversial figure among astronomers and astrophysicists who find his new theories very provocative.

He is, like Fermi, Teller and Oppenheimer, still a consultant to the government on various projects, and for years he has been a proponent of a nuclear reactor which would use heavy water, not graphite, as the moderator which keeps the thing from blowing up.

Other countries have gone ahead developing heavy - water reactors, but we have been slow to do so.

Dr. Philip Morrison, who was flown to the Pacific island of Tinian, to assemble the bomb which we dropped on Hiroshima, is currently in the center of a controversy at Cornell.

An ardent spokesman for peace, he recently revealed that years ago he was a Communist, but says that he is not one now. He has not been given access to secret government work for some years, as he has been engaged in private research.

Dr. George L. Weil, whose hand was on the "throttle," pulling out the control rods when the first sustained chain reaction was achieved, is now in private business, promoting a plan for an atomic-power plant.

He recently appeared before the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy to describe his plan, but private capital is not yet ready to invest in atomic power.

So it goes with the men who once thought only of their work and their friends in the laboratory. Like all the rest of us, only a good deal more, they have since become more and more involved with military matters and with generals, with investigating committees and the FBI.

Their dreams of the atom's benefit to humanity have not yet started to come true.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The PFC and the Asian Window

Dear Babe: Well, everybody is out with explanations and denials, but I certainly got a jolt from that report that John Foster Dulles planned to use G.I.'s to rebuild Korea and be "missionaries of reconstruction in an Asian show-window of Democracy" on account of an idle GI is an unhappy GI and only work keeps him happy.

So I guess you will get no snapshots of any wheelbarrow in any Asiatic windows.

I am all for restoring Korea but I got my doubts that the key to happiness for a Sad Sack is taking away his regular equipment and fitting him out with a keg of nails, saws, hammers, mortar buckets and instruction on running a cement mixer.

Glamor began going out of war a long time ago, Babe, and it is pretty well shot up today. But there was always a certain color to it that provided a kick to army service and I hate to see this blitzed by linking the uniform up with overalls, a carpenter's tool chest and a bricklayer's trowel.

Maybe we will just work with bulldozers and trucks and not be asked to go over the top with modern plumbing fixtures. This could be okay. I am no bargain with a tool kit myself and any house I built for a Korean would bring on a fresh war, and the same is true of a lot of my buddies.

There is more satisfaction building than destroying, but there is nothing heroic about being drafted for work in a construction gang, I am afraid.

Sgt. Mooney says the average GI will go up Old Baldy with no thought except to do his duty and clobber the enemy, but that even a medal for distinguished bricklaying will not get him to put his heart and soul into a building project, however noble. He could be right.

An idle GI may be unhappy like Dulles says, but he don't necessarily bust into song at the idea of joining the building trades.

You know how it is with me, I can't put up a screen door right or replace a washer in a kitchen faucet. I would look fine in this "Asian show-window of Democracy," and so would my Aunt Minnie.

Well, anyhow, I will be back before the Sergeant starts distributing hammers and nails, I hope, so it is something for the replacements to worry over. Your letters to me are running too short. The last one was only 23 pages. I love you in 3-D.

Yours on fire as usual, Emil.

P.S.—Keep away from that U.N. building. It is going to be more dangerous there than over here for the next few months.

Chisox Cry for Help in Effort To Catch Yankees

Bombers Belt 3 Homers In Series Opener, Win 6-1

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

More and more it looks as if the Chicago White Sox are going to need outside help if they hope to overhaul the fast - moving New York Yankees.

The Sox went into today's doubleheader in New York trailing the world champions by six games. After today the clubs meet only six more times, meaning of course that the most the Chicagoans could possibly make up by their own efforts would be six games.

Where the Sox can find that outside help is another question since so far this season they are the only club that has as much as broken even with Casey Stengel's crew.

After yesterday's 6-1 victory by the Yankees, the season's series stood all even at seven game each.

It looked for awhile as if the Sox were going to jump off to a comfortable margin in the second inning of the first contest when with one out they pounded Eddie Lopat for four straight hits, a double and three singles. But the attack netted only one run as a squeeze play failed and the Yankees settled the issue in the very next inning.

Lopat started it with a single. Joe Collins walked and when Minnie Minoso missed a quick cutoff on Mickey Mantle's liner to left center, the fleet-footed Yankee circled the bases as fast as you can say, "When do they start selling World Series tickets." Yogi Berra made the runs look legitimate by poking the ball into the right field seats. Billy Martin homered with one aboard in the eighth.

The Yankees gained another full game over the third-place Cleveland Indians, who bowed to Boston 4-2. Brilliant fielding by Jim Piersall and relief pitching by Ellis Kinder saved Mel Parnell's 15th victory. Philadelphia edged Detroit 3-1 in one of the fastest games of the year, an hour and 42 minutes, and Connie Marrero of Washington shut out St. Louis on three hits 12-0.

In the National League the Brooklyn Dodgers maintained their 7½-game lead over Milwaukee as all of the first division teams triumped. The Dodgers troun d Cincinnati 9-4. Milwaukee whipped Pittsburgh 9-2. Philadelphia nosed out Chicago 5-4, and St. Louis handed New York its 10th loss in 13 games 2-1.

Kellner fanned seven in beating Ralph Branca and the Tigers for his 10th victory. Gus Zernial hit his 27th home run for the A's.

Marrero's shutout was the seventh one in the last eight games at Washington. His mates backed him with an 11-hit attack on three Brownie hurlers with Harry Brecheen taking the loss.

Stan Musial got the cards off in front against New York with a first-inning home run and after the Giants tied it in the fourth on an infield hit by Don Mueller and a double by Davey Williams, the Cardinals pushed across the winning run in the bottom of the fourth with a double by Ray Jablonski and a single by Steve Bilko. Wilmer Mizell went all the way for his 10th victory.

The Phillies are 9½ games behind the Dodgers but they play like champions when they encounter the Cubs. Their triumph yesterday was their 13th in 14 meetings. The Phils bunched their eight hits into two innings and had only one other base runner. Ralph Kiner hit his 27th homer for Chicago.

Vern Bickford, one of the few Braves who didn't show immediate improvement in the move from Boston to Milwaukee, turned in a five-hitter in his first start since June 24. Del Crandall hit a two-run homer for the Braves. The victory was Bickford's second of the season.

British Champ Rallies, Whips Kid Matthews

SEATTLE (AP) — A body blow thrown in the desperation of a losing battle doubled up the veteran Harry (Kid) Matthews of Seattle last night and put the fat but agile British heavyweight champion, Don Cockell, on the road to a 10-round split decision victory.

A crowd of 14,868, which paid a record $96,606 to see the scrap, was as surprised as the 180-pound Matthews at the sudden ninth-round explosion. Cockell, who outweighed Matthews by 31½ pounds, was bleeding from a deep gash over his left cheekbone and seemed all but whipped after eight rounds.

Then he caught Matthews with the sweeping smash to the mid-section and blasted the Seattle veteran on the jaw before he hit the canvas in the first of three nine-count knockdowns in that decisive ninth round.

There were howls of rage in the Matthews camp after the decision was announced. Only Judge Eddie Pinkman favored the 31-year-old "Kid," 51 points to 49. Judge Jim Grant had it 50½ to 49½ for Cockell and Referee Jimmy Wilson voted for the Britisher 55 to 45.

"I thought Harry won 7 out of 10 rounds," said Jack Hurley, Matthews' manager. "He was so far in front at the ninth I didn't see how he could lose."

But the fight was decided entirely on points. The Associated Press scorecard had Matthews winning six rounds, with two going to Cockell and two even—but split the points, 55 to each man.

Matthews began piling up the points from the start, evading the rushes of the overweight Cockell and punishing him with sharp jabs and hooks. In the sixth he opened a cut an inch and a half long on the Londoner's cheek and he kept it bleeding for three rounds.

Twice Dr. James T. Moriarty, Washington Athletic Commission physician, entered the ring between rounds to survey the wound and the crowd half expected him to stop the fight. When he didn't, the fans urged Matthews to make it a kayo finish.

Early in the ninth Cockell landed his payoff punch as Matthews moved to avoid entrapment in a corner. Burly Don kept launching haymakers as Matthews kept getting up, and most of them landed. The third knockdown, off a looping left, almost knocked Matthews through the ropes.

North-South Gridders Set First Scrimmage

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The North and South high school All - Star squads will scrimmage for the first time today.

North Coach Chuck Mather of Massillon and South mentor Jim McDonald of Springfield reported their squads were improving with each workout.

The big game, eighth in the series, is next Friday night.

Dodgers Take 9-4 Decision From Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—With a bit of an assist from Dame Nature, the Cincinnati Redlegs today could be bragging about a 2-0 victory over Brooklyn, instead of trying to forget last night's 9-4 defeat.

The Dodgers had jumped into a 3-2 lead after 5½ innings of play when the rain started coming down in buckets. If the downpour had persisted, the umpires would have had to call the game and turned the contest back to the last full inning.

That would have meant a 2-0 triumph for Cincinnati, since Andy Seminick had clouted his 13th homer in the fifth inning following a single by Willard Marshall. But play was resumed after 42 minutes.

Doubles by Junior Gilliam and Jackie Robinson, along with a walk, a single and a fly had given the Dodgers their three runs in the sixth.

Duke Snider smashed his 22nd home run in the seventh for another counter and Chuck Dressens lads pulled out the stops with four more runs in the eighth. The big blow was Carl Furilo's 15th homer off Frank Smith, who had relieved loser Harry Perkowski.

Bud Podbielan got a taste of the Brooklyn hitting power in the ninth when Gilliam, Pee Wee Reese and Don Thompson combed him for a run on three consecutive singles.

Brooklyn and Cincinnati go at it again tonight. Lefty Fred Baczewski will be trying to win his seventh of eight decisions for Cincinnati. Veteran Preacher Roe (7-2) is to pitch for the Dodgers.

VFW, Alloy Notch Pony League Wins

VFW whipped G and G Builders 9-3 and Alloy Cast Steel edged Clark Metal Products 2-1 to throw the Pony League into a four way tie for first place Friday night.

In the first game VFW came through with a run in the first when Shoemaker walked, advanced on a passed ball and was doubled home by Coy. Four more runs in the second gave them a substantial lead. A double by Coy, a triple by Jones and three walks accounted for the scores.

G and G tried to catch up with two in the third and one in the fourth but the attempt was stopped cold. The veteran's four in the fifth sewed the game up. Dave Gallimore was the winning pitcher. In the nightcap Alloy came from behind in the fifth to throw the league into a deadlock. Clark Metal scored first when Kurz singled and scored on three passed balls. From then on the game was a pitcher's battle all the way.

The fifth inning saw Alloy open up. Two walks and a double accounted for two runs, enough to stop the Clarkmen and give the game to Alloy. The winning pitcher fo Alloy was Harris, striking out 11 men.

Two games Monday night will be makeup games. Game time is 6:15 p.m. at Lincoln Park.

Country Club Prepares For Patty Berg Clinic

The Marion Country Club has completed plans for the appearance of Patty Berg on Sunday, Aug. 16.

The Chicago golfer will conduct a golf clinic especially for women golfers and the public is invited. Jack Stoddard, Country Club pro, said no admission would be charged.

Following the clinic, scheduled for 2 p.m., Miss Berg will display the form which carried her to the top of the women golf ranks this year along the tournament trail. She will play nine holes with John Rife, Stoddard and Mrs. May Frazier.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching — Connie Marrero, Washington Senators, shutout the St. Louis Browns on three hits, winning 12-0.

Batting — Mel Parnell, Boston Red Sox, collected two hits and drove in three runs to help win his own game over Cleveland, 4-2.

BEAN BALL VICTIM BACK HOME. His skull fractured by a bean ball on July 7, Don Zimmer, St. Paul shorstop, is shown back home in Cincinnati with his wife and son, Tommy, after two operations in a Columbus hospital. He is holding fishing tackle he expects to use for the rest of the baseball season. Zimmer has been named as a possible successor to shorstop Pee Wee Reese of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

GALION — A foul ball struck Jim Wilkes, 11, in the face Thursday night to mark the first injury of the Little Loop baseball season in Galion.

Jim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooklyn Wilkes, was standing in the batter's circle in the sixth inning of the Art Nicholls vs. All-Steel game, when he was hit. Indians' Third-Place Hold Loosened by 4-2 Defeat

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox were breathing down the necks of the Cleveland Indians again today as the Tribe slipped to 10½ games out of first, the lowest for the club since July 30.

Boston's 4-2 triumph over the third-place Indians last night pulled the Beantowners to within 2½ games of the Tribe.

Bill Henry, who has a 2-2 record, got the Boston mound assignment today in the second meeting of the clubs. Early Wynn, seeking his 13th victory against eight defeats, was picked to hurl for Cleveland.

The Sox slugged Bob Lemon hard last night, collecting 12 hits while the Tribe was getting only six off Mel Parnell and Ellis Kinder. The loss was Lemon's 10th against 15 victories while Parnell upped his record to 15-7.

The best the Tribe could do was an inside-the-park homer by Bobby Avila in the first inning and a homer by Luke Easter in the sixth.

Avila's freak circuit-clout landed just inside the right field foul line. Right fielder Jim Piersall raced in and managed to deflect the ball, but then stunned himself by crashing into the grandstand wall. Before the ball could be retrieved, Avila had circled the bases.

Seixas, Trabert Eliminated in Tennis Action

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J. (AP) — America's chief hopes for regaining the Davis Cup were on the sidelines today as three Australians and the U. S. intercollegiate champion matched strokes in the semifinal round of the Eastern Grass Court Tennis Championships.

The two 18-year-old Australian tennis wonders, Ken Rosewall and Lewis Hoad, met in one of the matches. In the other Rex Hartwig, another Aussie, tangled with Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La.

This country's chief Davis Cup hopes bowed out of the tournament yesterday when Hartwig eliminated Wimbledon Champion Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Rosewall toppled Tony Trabert of Cincinnati. Hartwig won 9-11, 6-3, 7-5; Rosewall 4-6, 8-6, 6-1.

Hoad, who with Rosewall is expected to represent Australia in the Challenge Round in December, disposed of the top-ranking American, Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla. 4-6, 8-6, 6-1. Richardson moved up at the expense of Noel Brown of Los Angeles 6-3, 6-2.

And to make the Aussies dominance over the Americans more complete, Rosewall and Hoad defeated Seixas and Richardson 7-5, 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3 to go into the final round of the doubles.

The other semifinal match in the doubles was scheduled for today with Trabert and Bill Talbert meeting another Australian team—Hartwig and Mervyn Rose.

The women's singles final tomorrow, however, will be strictly an American affair with Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, and Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., meeting for the title.

COACH NAMED

Seven Under Par

Ed Oliver Leads by Two At Tam's Halfway Point

CHICAGO (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver father of four and undoubtedly golf's most celebrated breadwinner, may have found the keys to the Ft. Knox of the tournament circuit.

The affable 220-pounder, probably thinking of all the mouths he has to feed, has gone hog-wild in the chase for the $25,000 first prize of the "World's" Golf Championship at Tam O'Shanter.

Old Pork Chops, wisecracking favorite of his colleagues in the lockerroom but a feared adversary on the links, headed into today's third round with a 2-stroke lead.

The short-iron master got in this enviable position of golf's richest tournament by calmly shooting a second-round 67 yesterday while some first - round leaders were choking up under the pressure.

The 67 gave the 36-year-old pro from Palm Springs, Calif., a neat 135, seven strokes under par, at the halfway point, and a chance at Tam's 72-hole record of 269 set by Byron Nelson in 1945.

"Porky is the man to watch now," said Al Besselink, voicing the opinion of the other 82 pros in the field. "He seldom folds under pressure. He just goes out and plays. I still think a 273 will be good enough to win, however."

Bunched on Oliver's heels at 137 were Dave Douglas, the personable PGA vice president who had yesterday's best round, a 65; Bob Toski, a 123-pounder who hits the ball a country mile; And Lew Worsham, the fist-round leader who forfeited 5 strokes to par in the last six holes after a brilliant 33 on the first nine to wind up with a 72.

Chandler Harper was lone in the 138 bracket, posting a pair of 69s, and at 139 came Jack Burke, Besselink, Freddie Haas and Skee Riegel.

Cincinnati, Springfield Clash for Legion Title

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Defending champion Bentley Post of Cincinnati met Ward Post of Springfield today for the Ohio American Legion Baseball title.

The junior Redegs tasted their first defeat, 10-5, in five years of state competition at the hands of Ward yesterday. It takes two reversals to eliminate a team.

Cincinnati ousted Newark yesterday 2-1.

Oldest rival on Army's football schedule is Navy. They have played 53 games. Army leads 27 to 22. Four games were tied.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

It gives one a queer feeling of a world in constant state of flux to be told that the Sahara Desert is something more than a vast area of sand, traversed by camels ridden by sheiks.

SOKOLSKY

Yet, into our modern world, the Sahara moves upon us as a political and economic potential of a high order. It is no longer to be regarded as a desert, but a land of vast and unforetellable possibilities.

The Romans knew something of that and therefore destroyed Carthage.

The Mohammedans knew something of that when they conquered the north of Africa from Cairo to Casablanca.

But neither Roman nor Arab ever realized how dependent the world would become upon minerals, how the center of political power would be associated with the possession of minerals, that uranium would become more important to the security of a state than gold.

IT USED to be that the nation that possessed gold was rich. Then coal and iron grew in importance.

In this century, copper, lead, zinc, tin, uranium vie with coal and iron in economic and political significance.

For instance, the United States obtains practically all of its uranium from Africa and Canada which have therefore taken on an altogether new meaning for this country, as our life as a free people depends upon our access to this mineral.

The Sahara is full of minerals and metals. It is a vast region of nearly 6,000,000 square miles or nearly twice the size of the United States. (There is some difference of opinion as to the actual size of the Sahara, depending upon how the territory is calculated.)

Most of the Sahara is controlled by France and may, in the not too distant historic future, become economically more important to France than France itself.

IN FACT, if the French can hold onto the Sahara, particularly to the French protectorates, Tunisia and Morocco, France could be restored to a first-class power which she has not been since 1870.

The restoration of France's position could change the balance of power in the world. It could make France the greatest of Western European countries.

The substitution of motorized transportation for the camel and the fiery Arab horse can make all the difference in the development of the Sahara.

While the camel, horse and nomadic flocks of sheep are picturesque, the tractor, jeep, airplane and automobile will change the face of this continent of sand. Nor will life be so dependent upon the oasis, surrounded by palm trees.

MODERN machinery can be brought in to find and dig wells, not only for water but for oil which is beginning to appear in quantities.

Modern irrigation methods can transform wildernesses into agricultural paradises.

I have recently been looking at some figures showing mineral wealth already produced in this region.

It runs to copper, iron, manganese, lead, zinc, tin, sulphur, and coal.

Manganese is particularly important because it is not readily available for American steel production and every new find proves valuable.

Coal is abundant, rising in Algeria from 17,000 tons in 1930 to about 600,000 tons in 1952. In the Moroccan part of the Sahara valuable anthracite mines are being exploited.

AFRICA is still looked upon as a dark and unknown continent, but it is nothing of the sort. World War II established its tremendous importance as a base for the defense of our country from any European aggressor.

In the event of a war with Russia, the United States will more likely be based on Africa than on any country in Europe and the Sahara Desert will be very important to us.

Actually, considerable developments of this nature have already taken place.

That is one reason for the increased interest in that part of the world and the tremendous impetus that has been given to its exploration in recent years.

ANOTHER importance of the Sahara is that once modern methods of irrigation are applied, it will be possible to increase the population of the Sahara, transferring large numbers of Europeans, particularly farmers, from those countries that are vexed with surplus populations for which few solutions are at present available.

For instance, migration of Italians, Spaniards, and even Germans to the Saharan countries may be expected in increasing numbers during the next half century.

The movement of Europeans to Africa could alter the social complexion of that continent.

Speak Different Language

Dictionary of Woman Talk Is Needed

NEW YORK (AP)—There is a dictionary available today for every language except the language of women.

Scholars think world peace would be speeded if the people of every nation spoke the same language. That's a pretty hard thing to get everybody together on.

It seems to me that the first step would be to get everybody in the same household to speak the same language. That would bring peace in the home.

"Why that's silly," you say. "Everybody in our house speaks the same language — plain old English."

But do they? The average American home today has at least three separate and distinct language dialects. They are man talk, woman talk, and teen-age talk.

All, of course ,stem from schoolbook English. But, aside from this mutual ancestry, the three languages have little in common. And no one in a home can understand all three.

Ever listen to a teen-ager on a telephone? Completely mystifying. Every now and then you catch a familiar word or even a complete sentence — such as "Oh, he's a real square." But the words and sentences don't focus into any meaning. They don't make sense, except possibly to another teen-ager, and you can't even be sure of that.

But teen-age talk is really no more important than the pig Latin of early childhood. Like pimples, it is merely something the kids go through while growing up.

The real cause of misunderstanding in today is the difference between man talk andowm naat lk.saBi- c man talk and woman talk. Basically, man talk means what says, while woman talk means almost anything in the world but what it says.

This is the real reason why men find women mysterious. They keep expecting a woman's conversation to make sense, when that often is the last thing in the world a woman has in mind when she opens her mouth.

When two men get together and find they have nothing to say they generally shut up. But two women can chat along comfortably for an hour without really saying anything. They both know it, but meanwhile they have had a fine time resting their brains while taking the tension off their vocal chords.

A man usually doesn't realize men and women speak different languages until after he marries. All of a sudden the little bride he thought he knew so well starts talking in Greek.

"How do you like the peas, pear," she asks. And if he grunts, "fine, baby," all of a sudden she gets mad. Of course, what her remark really meant was, "Pass me the peas, you big baboon. Don't you see I don't have any?"

Or, leaving a cocktail party, she may say, "Don't you think that tall blonde was quite attractive?" If he replies, "Boy, I'll say she was!—well, he's deep in the doghouse. What he should have replied was, "Baby, you made that blonde look like a wet mop after a hard day."

The key thing to realize is that you can't take a woman at her word — or you'll never understand her. And, naturally, a man must learn when a woman doesn't want to be understood. Sometimes she wants to be misunderstood. The art is to know when.

Over the years a married man cautiously finds out that anything his wife says has at least three possible meanings, two of which he can only guess at. But no man lives long enough to comprehend them all.

What is needed is a dictionary of woman talk. Each married man could put down all his wife's remarks and then list what he thinks they really mean. By pooling millions of these interpretations some sort of guide could be obtained to the confusing language of women.

Then, if your wife said, "Well, it looks like a nice day," you could thumb hurriedly through your dictionary and find out whether she meant her corns were hurting her or only that she wanted to go for a ride in the country.

EXPAND GAS LINES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio and neighboring states will get enough natural gas each day to operate 420,000 gas ranges a year upon completion of 55 new projects, the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Assn. said yesterday. The projects will cost some $492 million dollars.

Some 100,000 tons of fish are taken annually from the Great Lake of Cambodia in Indo-China, an average of 26 tons per square mile of lake.

This year tens of millions of dollars worth of merchandise, from a set of kitchen knives to a million dollar vacant factory building, will be sold at public auction. Scout Expedition Begins Sunday

Explorers To Spend Week in Camp

Explorer Scouts of the Harding Area Council will rough it next week at Camp Owens, making their own beds and sleeping out of doors, cooking their own meals and learning other survival skills by means of actual practice and demonstrations.

Billed as an Explorer Expedition, the week's program will get under way Sunday when the boys will check in and receive tents, rope and other supplies necessary to outdoor camping. Vesper services and a briefing campfire are also on schedule tomorrow.

During the week, demonstrations on survival skills and other subjects will be presented each afternoon by outsides — the State Highway Patrol, Air Force, Soil Conservation Service, Monsanto Chemical Co., and Marion Engineer Depot.

Other Boy Scouts, leaders and interested adults are invited to attend these demonstrations which are scheduled at 1:45 p.m. each day at the camp, located about five miles south of Marion.

Some 45 Explorer Scouts — boys 14 and older—will be at the camp next week, along with some 30 other Boy Scouts, who have also been invited to watch the demonstrations. But the two groups will follow separate programs for the rest of the week.

Pool To Be Open

The new swimming pool at Camp Owens is expected to be open sometime during the week, Dean Johnson, camp director, reported today.

First of the various demonstrations, presented by the Soil Conservation Service, will be on soil erosion and forestry projects Monday afternoon.

A State Highway Patrol demonstration is planned Tuesday. A special emergency highway patrol unit will be used in the demonstration of emergency first aid by patrolmen.

Tuesday morning there will be survival cooking. Scouts will do outdoor baking and cooking without utensils and other specialized outdoor cooking. There will be various types of fires, foil cooling and tin can cookery.

Wednesday is the big day in camp. Highlighting the day is a Lockbourne Air Force Base demonstration on water survival scheduled at 1:45 p.m. Airman 1-C Robert R. Hoffman and an assistant, Airman 3-C Stanley Fishcarrier, a full blooded Iroquois Indian, will demonstrate some of the latest Air Force water survival equipment including lifebelts, life rafts, insulated survival suits and use of ordinary clothing as a means of survival in the water. Explorers will have the opportunity to use all the equipment demonstrated. The two Airmen are from the Base Training Flight, 801 Operations Squadron.

During the morning, beginning at 9:15 a.m., Explorers will make and then use pioneer tools they have constructed.

Swimming Party

At 4 p.m. a Co-ed splash party is scheduled. Explorers may bring dates and two Senior Girl Scout units will also be there. Games and contests will highlight the event.

An outdoor barbecue will be held at 6 p.m. Explorers will serve a complete meal prepared in a barbecue pit and open fire. Then at 8 p.m., a square dance will be held in the dining hall, with Hugh Johnson as caller. An outdoor corn roast will follow the dance.

On Thursday, a Marion Engineer Depot demonstration will be held at 1:45 p.m. Capt. Robert H. Moore from the Depot, an authority in maps and rope work and an Eagle Scout, will demonstrate the various types of maps, symbols and other military matter and will demonstrate how to conduct a "gin pole" used in hoisting heavy weights.

A roast turkey dinner will be held at 6 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m., a special Indian campfire is on the program. Chief Lone Star of Newcomerstown, O., authority on Indian lore, will put on the campfire. He also does imitations of animals and birds.

Fire Demonstration

Various types of fire fighting apparatus on actual fires will be in operation during the Monsanto Chemical Co.-Scioto Laboratory demonstration at 1:45 p.m. Friday. Paul Newland, a former member of a California forest fire fighting organization, will be in charge of the demonstration.

One hour later at 2:45 p.m., Explorers will organize into an emergency service corps and put out an actual fire, care for mock injuries and set up tents, cots and perform other duties which would stem from an actual occurance of this kind. A soupline organized for the mobilization will serve dinner to those participating.

At 7:30 p.m., a ceremony is planned at the swimming pool and at 8:30 p.m. the closing night campfire will be held.

Saturday is Dads' and Leaders' Day. Fathers and Scouters are invited to spend the morning, during which time contests will be run, Explorers will show Scouteraft and Campcraft projects completed during the week and awards will be made.

already has been approved by Congress.

The two governments swapped ideas and drafted plans for working side by side to achieve peace, ust as they did in fighting the war, Dulles said.

The joint Rhee-Dulles statement said they hope their exchange of views "will establish a preparatory foundation for coordinated efforts at the political conference."

The high-level international talks, according to the armistice terms, must open by Oct. 27.

The talks are aimed at finding a way to unite North and South Korea by peaceful means and fixing a time for withdrawal of Chinese and U.N. forces from the peninsula.

Dulles told newsmen other matters might arise for debate. These could include such Asian issues as the fate of Formosa and the Indochina war.

Vetoes stood on acts which would have given:

Employers a rebate on the contributions to the state's unemployment compensation fund up to Oct. 1. The Senate refused to consider the veto.

Citizens permission to sue the tate in accidents involving state-owned vehicles.

Citizens the right to sue the state in accidents involving autos owned by cities and other local governments. The Senate overrode the governor's veto, but the House refused to override.

Five Drivers Arrested By State Patrolmen

Five traffic arrests on Marion area highways were reported today by the State Highway Patrol.

Driver arrested included:

Kalel Okdie, 31, of Melvindale, Mich., passing at a railroad crossing, posted bond for appearance in Municipal Court Aug. 15; Loren Buchanan, 25, of Troy, crossing a railroad crossing while the signals were flashing, posted bond for appearance in Municipal Court on Aug. 13; Lindsey Calhoon, 30, of Alpine, Ky., speeding, fined $10 and costs by Cardington Mayor Donald Healea; Raymond Yost, 40, of King's Mills, O., speeding, fined $10 and costs by Justice of the Peace Bennington at Mt. Gilead, and Truman Gibson of Chicago, speeding, fined $20 and costs by Mayor Koehler of Upper Sandusky.

Two Injured In Marion and Area Accidents

Woman Hospitalized After Car Hits Bridge And Pole on Route 4

A Marion woman was sent to City Hospital with injuries suffered in one of three accidents on area highways investigated during the last 24 hours by the state highway patrol.

In the city, an 82-year-old woman pedestrian was the only person injured in traffic. Police reported four accidents.

Mrs. Ethel May Miley of 528 Davids St. suffered a fractured right shoulder, bruised right hip, and abrasions of the right leg in a one-car accident at 5:30 p.m. yesterday on Route 4 about four and one-half miles north of Marion.

She was a passenger in a car driven south by her husband, Arthur, 37, when he passed out for some unknown reason and the car swerved across the road, sideswiped a bridge and went on to crash into a telephone pole.

Taken to the hospital in Boyd's ambulance, she is reported in "good" condition at the hospital today. Patrolmen said the car was nearly demolished. Miley escaped injury.

Two Cardington Accidents

Another motorist received a slight shoulder injury in one of two mishaps which occurred on Route 42 in Cardington yesterday morning.

Robert J. Brown, 31, of Buffalo, N. Y. was hurt when his car was sideswiped by a semi-trailer truck driven by James Gamble, 49, of Springfield, which also sideswiped a second southbound car driven by John Kordich, 22, of Canton. Kordich was not injured. Patrolmen reported considerable damage to the left sides of both cars, but only minor damage to the truck. Gamble was arrested on a charge of driving left of the centerline and was fined $15 and costs by Cardington Mayor Donald Healea.

Thomas Gardner, 23, of Galion, escaped injury when a truck he was driving overturned on a curve on Route 42 in Cardington at 9:55 a.m. Friday. Patrolmen said the truck overturned because the load shifted. Gardner was arrested on a charge of having an insecure load. He was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Healea.

City Accidents

Mrs. Marie Ruehrmund, 82, of 189 W. Church St. was only sightly injured when she was struck lightly by an auto Friday at 12:01 p. m. on S. Main St.

Mrs. Ruehrmund told police she was waking south on the street. She walked behind an auto parked in an alley. The car started in the alley just as she passed and backed into her. Her right leg was bruised but she required no medical attention. The car was unidentified.

A car driven by Lewis Milton Gattshall of 150 N. Grand Ave. was slightly damaged Friday at 10:27 p.m. when it backed into a parked car owned by Gladys Halley of 435 Scranton Ave. The accident occurred in front of the Halley home.

A car driven by Edward F Miller, 38, of 503 Tyler St. struck a parked car Friday owned by Robert A. Llewellen of the same address. Miller was backing from the drive.

Another parked car owned by Olivene Rose of 762 Davids St. was slightly damaged at 12:14 this morning while parked near her home. A car driven by Robert C. McMillen of 608 Decatur St. hit the parked vehicle. Both were slightly damaged.

Speaking quietly and quickly, Malenkov was not interrupted until he referred to the defense strength of the Soviet Union. That brought cheers from the deputies.

With the premier were first Deputy Premier Lazar Kaganovich, seated on his right; Nikita S. Khruschchev, member of the secretariat of the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party, on his left; Marshal Kelementy Voroshikov, president of the Presidium; Deputy Premier and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov; M. Z. Saburov, member of the Communist party's Presidum; M. C. Pervukhin, minister of electric stations and electric industry; Nikolai Shvernik, Trades Union Council chairman; Anastase I. SMART CAT

BOSTON (UP) — Passers-by got a chuckle out of seeing a cat snoozing beneath a sign on the Suffolk County courthouse lawn. The sign read "No Dogs Allowed."

British Hedge On U.N. Pact With Koreans

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A U. S. report to the United Nations has disclosed that the 16 U. N. members who fought in Korea are pledged to resist any new attack on South Korea even if fighting should spread beyond Korean borders.

Britain and Canada quickly declared, however, that the promise did not commit them to any definite course of action. A Canadian spokesman said any move to meet a new attack would be taken only after consultations among the 16 nations.

Signing of the pledge July 27 was revealed in almost routine fashion here yesterday in a special report on the Korean armistice negotiations. The report was presented by the United States—the U. N. unified command leader.

It was made public shortly before U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in a joint statement with South Korean President Syngman Rhee warned the Communists that the U. N. Command would meet any new attack in violation of the armistice. The Dulles-Rhee statement was issued in Seoul as the United States and South Korea initialed a mutual security pact.

The pledge was signed by the United States, Britain, France, Australia, Belgium, Colombia, Canada, Ethiopia, Greece, Luxembourg, The Philippines, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Thailand, Turkey and South Africa.

It declared that "if there is a renewal of the armed attack, challenging the principles of the United Nations, we should again be united and prompt to resist."

List of Ohioans Is Boosted to 12

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four more Ohioans were released from Korean prison camps today, causing tears of joy and prayerful thanks at their homes. Twelve Buckeye GIs now have been liberated in "Operation Big Switch."

Handed over to American authorities by their Red captors were Pfc. Alfonso S. Johnson, 32, and Pfc. William Lewis Jr., 22, both of Cleveland, Pfc. Nathaniel S. Thomas, 20, of Alliance, and Cpl. Amos Jackson J4., 25, of Cincinnati.

Thomas' mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, 42, was at a club meeting when she heard the news on television. "I was so happy I hollered and yelled," she said, "I'm just so happy I don't know what to do. I was speechless for awhile when I heard it."

Mrs. Ida Burts, 43, Lewis' mother, broke down and wept. "I can barely talk I'm so happy," she whispered. "I never went to sleep at night without a prayer for him on my lips."

Johnson's mother was vacationing in Georgia. His sister, Mrs. Alice Cooper, 33, received word in Cleveland of his release. "She has been praying for this day," the daughter said. "Sometimes it seemed it never would come. I can only hope other families will have the same good luck."

Jackson, said "It's just wonder-

Jackson, said "It's ust wonderful, wonderful. There were times when I'd almost given up hope of seeing him again." She said she had remained "glued to her radio" since releasing of the prisoner lists began.

its users like a drink. "It seemed to make them feel good," Rudd declared.

Dixon said the prisoners were forced to submit to indoctrination classes but added, "Communism isn't fit for a dog."

Agreeing with Dixon were Pfc. Nathaniel S. Thomas of Alliance, Ohio, and Pfc. Leroy Broom of Albany, Ga. All three were in the same camp.

Cpl. Robert I. Banks, 23, Cambridge, Md., said he knew of a few prisoners who sympathized with the Communists.

"They were called progressives" by the other prisoners, Banks said. "I thought they were taking the wrong road."

He said some of the "progressives" were separated from the others and given further courses in communism.

Banks said at first the white prisoners were not separated by the Reds but later the whites were put in camps away from Negroes. He said still later the prisoners were split up according to nationality but that American Negroes were kept away from the whites.

Banks said the Communists harped on racial discrimination in the United States but did not make much headway toward converting Americans into Reds.

Pfc. Wilbert R. Gibson, 29, Detroit, said, "I saw them whip one guy. They hit him with a club, cut him up and threw him in a hole in the ground. I never saw him again."

FBI To Probe Tax Fee Case

House Group Submits Report to Justice Dept.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has taken over investigation of transactions involving $65,000 paid Welburn Mayock, a lawyer, for getting a favorable tax ruling.

Mayock testified he paid $30,000 of this into Democratic campaign fund coffers in 1948, and that he got the ruling after a personal appeal to then Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder.

The Mayock case was among the last unearthed by a House ways and means subcommittee which yesterday wound up more than two years of a frequently sensational inquiry into handling of tax matters during the Truman administration.

Justice Department officials announced yesterday the FBI will investigate the case.

Mayock, who described himself as a volunteer counsel for the Democratic National Committee in 1948, told the House group earlier this week he got the $65,000 from William S. Lasdon, chemical company executive of Yonkers, N. Y., after obtaining the Treasury Department ruling favoring Lasdon.

Snyder, now vice president of Willys-Overland Motors, Inc., at Toledo, Ohio, has said he does not recall the incident.

Subcommittee Chairman Kean (R-NJ) turned the case over to the Justice Department following Mayock's further testimony that he gave $8,750 apiece out of his fee to Louis Markus and William Solomon of New York. Mayock said the two men had put him in touch with Lasdon.

Markus and Solomon both denied getting the money from Mayock. Kean remarked the conflicting testimony indicated someone was guilty of perjury and income tax evasion.

Snyder's name figured again yesterday in two further rulings aired by the congressmen in their final hearing.

One involved the Universal Pictures Corp. A. Frederick Olsen, an official in the revenue bureau's New York office, said the company wanted fast action on a claim for a 21 million dollar refund on its excess profits taxes.

He said the firm got a decision speeded up in violation of Treasury rules after Snyder interested himself in the case in 1948, although the figure was scaled down to three million dollars by the time the refund was approved.

Previous hearings brought out that Universal Pictures hired John Horton, Snyder's son-in-law, in 1950 as its Washington representative. Both Snyder and Horton denied the appointment had any connection with the tax case.

A second Treasury ruling reported to the committee as having been speeded involved the claim of the late Frank C. Rand of St. Louis for an income tax refund of $330,000. A compromise settlement was reached at $175,000.

William P. Hindman, assistant subcommittee counsel, said the investigators did not think the settlement was necessarily wrong. But he said they wanted to call attention to the "extreme speed" with which it was approved, and the relationship of this speed to Snyder's interest in the case.

Snyder could not be reached for comment on yesterday's developments.

his office the middle of this week and agents were sent to Marion to aid in the investigation.

Linked During Questioning

Holycross was tentatively linked with the two trainwrecking attempts during previous questioning on the arson charges, investigators said.

The FBI was called because of the possibility attempted train wrecking may involve interstate commerce and thus would become a violation of federal laws, McCabe reported. He said possibly the U. S. Attorney will file no charges until after disposition of the arson charges already filed against Holycross.

Injured Boy Transferred To Hospital in Columbus

James Smith, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of near Marion, who was seriously injured Thursday when his bicycle was struck by a car on Kenton Ave., was transferred Friday from City Hospital to White Cross Hospital in Columbus.

Hospital spokesmen said today he remained in critical condition. He is suffering from serious head injuries.

The youth's bicycle was struck by a car driven by Harry C. Darrah, 22, of Louisville, O., at the intersection of Kenton Ave. and Silver St. Following an investigation by the state highway patrol, Darrah was charged with unsafe operation and is scheduled to appear in Municipal Court here Monday.

In addition to the head injury James suffered a fractured left clavicle and a chest injury. He was taken from City Hospital to White Cross in a Boyd ambulance.

Ike Signs Key Bills Before He Leaves Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, vacation-bound today, could leave at least one care behind him—the principal measures governing U. S. foreign policy for the next year are all on the lawbooks.

He signed these key bills yesterday:

1. The hard-fought 6½ billion dollar appropriation for military and economic aid to friendly nations. It carried 645 millions less than his "honest minimum figure" and marked a shift in military aid emphasis to the Far East. For this area, $1,035,000,000 was earmarked, compared with $521,700,000 for 1953. Europe was allotted $1,860,000,000 in new money, compared with $3,047,200,000 last year.

2. The bill extending the reciprocal trade program to next June 12. The President said it reaffirms this country's intention to cooperate "on a mutually profitable basis" with friends overseas.

3. The measure authorizing him to send up to 100 million dollars worth of surplus farm products to friendly peoples. It permits distribution to those under Red rule, like the East Germans, who already have defied communists masters to get U. S. food.

4. $615,989,964 appropriation measure, carrying, among other items, 75 millions for foreign information activities, 200 million authorization for Korean reconstruction $46,525,000 for civil defense, and 70 millions for school aid in districts crowded by defense activities.

C. Tyler Wood, deputy to foreign Aid Director Harold Stassen, was put in charge of the Korean reconstruction program as chief economic staff officer to Gen. Mark Clark, Far Eastern commander.

Also signed yesterday were bills to:

Create a commission to study raising salaries of members of Congress and federal judges.

Provide for federal leasing of offshore lands outside states' "historic boundaries."

Authorize Food and Drug Administration inspectors to enter processing plants without owners' approval.

Derby

and what has he been through?

He has to be between 11 and 15 years old. Whether he has freckles — as some champs have had — doesn't matter. He may be large, or a halfpint, but the combined weight of the boy and his car must not exceed 250 pounds. Some of the heftier boys have to watch their weight.

He has to be a craftsman. Advice is all the help he can get. Every lick of work that has gone into his car must have been his own. And except for a set of commercially made wheels and axles at $12.25 he must not have spent more than $10.

He must have been a champion in his home town. He has come to Akron to compete against 150 other boys from all over the United States, from Canada, Alaska and West Germany. There are three days of ballyhoo, trial runs and entertainment. This may be his second or third try at Derby Downs, but the thrills always seem new.

He must win under pressure. The heats start at 1 p. m. tomorrow, and every 90 seconds three boys are whizzing down the hill. Only the heat winners can go on. Boys whose cars have scraped the skirtboards or have developed a wobble must make emergency repairs that would do credit to a pit man at the Indianapolis Speedway. In an few minutes, the handlers are easing the car against the starting paddles, the paddles drop and the boy is off again.

His name will be known to thousands before that truck gets to the top of the hill tomorrow afternoon. He could be the kid who lives in the next block.

PLANE CRASH KILLS 2

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A private plane crashed near a mountain top television broadcast tower today and state police reported the two passengers in the plane were killed.

Frenchmen Go Back to Work

2 Million Government Employes End Strike

PARIS (AP)—French civil servants began trooping back to work today as the nation's worst general strike since the Popular Front days of 1936 sputtered toward a close. But mail, telegraph, telephone, gas and electric power services remained out.

Buses and subways roared back into operation and government employes were at their desks when offices opened this morning. Trains chugged out of Paris's big stations. Elsewhere, however, the rail strike continued.

The returning workers were among an estimated two million Frenchmen employed in a variety of public services from street sweepers and grave diggers to rail workers who left their jobs at midnight Thursday in protest against Premier Joseph Laniel's rumored plans to save money at their expense

Walkouts in the big government-owned gas and electric power services were scheduled to continue until midnight tonight. The government's postal, telegraph and telephone services also remained unmanned as workers stayed away from their jobs for the third consecutive day.

Although the walkout by some 400,000 employes of the government-owned railroads was scheduled to end last midnight, the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor added confusion to an already bewildering situation by calling on all rail workers to continue their strike until midnight tonight.

Rail workers at Brest, Rennes, Toulouse and Quimper defied orders of their non-Communist unions and remained on the job. These unions—the Socialist Workers Force and the Christian Labor Federation—said, however, they were confident that rail traffic would become normal during the day.

The general strike was called after the walkout of postal, telephone and telegraph highlighted unconfirmed reports that Laniel's program included raising the retirement age of civil servants and dismissing thousands of surplus government employes.

The postal, telephone and telegraph workers are out for an unlimited period.

Elevator

on the tax duplicate for one year.

Although testimony at the May court hearing placed the estimated cost of an elevator and necessary shafts at about $30,000, commissioners feel that the $50,000 figure would more accurately cover the cost.

Filing of the appeal notice will not affect the placement of the levy on the November ballots. If the levy is approved by the voters, the commissioners can proceed with the elevator's installation.

However, of the voters turn down the levy, Judge Smith's order still stands, and commissioners would have to find the money elsewhere.

But with an appeal filed in the Court of Appeals there is a chance that the Common Pleas Court order might be reversed.

Many 'Lawbreakers'

Home Handyman Should Know City Building Code

How to stay out of jail might be a good chapter heading in "Do-It-Yourself" books. We haven't heard of a home handyman actually landing in the hoosegow for his fix-it and build-it efforts, but apparently thousands of us are lawbreakers with out knowing it.

There are building regulations, plumbing, heating, and electrical codes, zoning restrictions and fire and health ordinances in every well-governed community. In some places there are so many things a man can't do on his own property that it is much easier to list the few jobs that are legal.

Charles Hostetler of the Toledo Blade found this out recently in making a survey of the laws people break with a hammer or monkey wrench

"Have you recently installed a washer, drier, hot waterheater, garbage disposal unit, or dishwasher?" Mr. Hostetler asked his Toledo, O., readers. "Did you have a permit? Technically you must have one and primarily for your own benefit, for city inspectors check to determine there are no hazards to your safety and health in operating those devices."

Don't think this applies only to Toledo and that you can do as you please. It happens that Toledo is more or less typical It would be wise to check your own regulations.

Under almost any building code, permits are required for any structural work—building a dog house, tool shed, garage, porch, attic windows, dormers, and even work indoors, such as enlarging a doorway to an archway.

Mr. Hostetler found that about the only jobs not requiring permits were:

Construction— Ordinary repairs, replacing anything worn out or deteriorated by the weather.

Plumbing— Pouring grease solvent down the drain.

Heating— Adjusting the thermostat

Electrical— Using an extension cord.

'Many heating, plumbing and electrical projects are done by homeowners without permits and in violation of the law," he observes. "Here the handyman defeats himself. The city not only will readily grant permits for this type of work the householder chooses to do himself, but will provide on-the-job inspection to guide the handyman in turning out a first-class, hazard-free and acceptable job."

It should be easy for any homeowner to understand why there are such laws. If your neighbor built a porch or other structure too close to your line and interfered with your light and air, you'd object. If he made plumbing changes that contaminated your drinking water, or electrical changes that constituted fire hazards, you'd insist on protection.

Even an outdoor barbecue can be a neighborhood nuisance. Hostetler found that if an outdoor fireplace is a target of complaint, the Fire Prevention Bureau in Toledo has the power to order its removal.

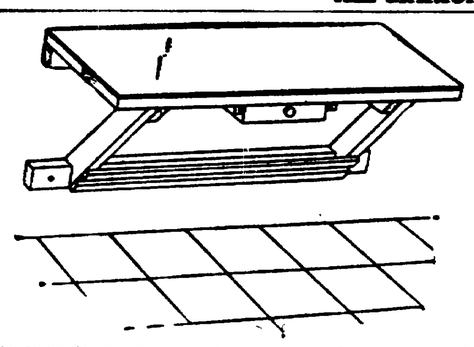
"The bureau," he says, "recommends a minimum 10-foot clearance between an outdoor oven and any frame building.

"Except for burning charcoal in an outdoor oven any outdoor fire is illegal in the city."

On the other hand, some deliberate disregard for building permits, where they can be dodged, undoubtedly is prompted by fear of the tax assessor. The home owner building a back porch on his house soon learns that making the project a matter of public record means a jump in his taxes.

If he did all the work himself, but estimates that the full cost of his improvement might have amounted to $1,000 if he hired the porch built, he may be faced with paying $15 per year on a lenient 50 per cent assessment when the tax rate amounts to 3 per cent.

Nevertheless, a good Do-It-Yourself project is to get acquainted with your local laws and regulations.



ECONOMY WORKBENCH. Here's a sturdy and compact workbench which can be installed even in a storage-short utility room of a basementless house.

Two 2 by 4s, notched to fit a 2 by 4 bolted to the wall, serve as slanting legs. Two planks, each 10 inches wide, are laid over more 2 by 4s to form the base of the top. For a tough working surface, a piece of hardboard if the tempered pressed wood type is nailed over the planks. This provides a smooth surface of material widely used for bench tops in factories.

By nailing couple of 1 by 2 strips across the slanting legs, you create a handy place for short pieces of lumber. The drawer may be made or purchased. For a smooth hard bottom that won't splinter, use another piece of hardboard.

Tiny Cracks In Plaster

Q. There are tiny cracks in the plaster walls after the paper was removed. How many coats of paint would it take to cover them?

A: The application of paint would not be the solution for the elimination of such cracks. They should be filled with spackle, which you can get at most any paint store, or by rubbing in white lead paste thinned to a thick creamy consistency. When hard and dry, the surfaces should be made smooth by rubbing with "000" sandpaper. Be sure all dust is wiped off.

Dampness In Wall

Q: Can you tell me something that will eliminate dampness in one corner of the basement kitchen? We have tried different things and painted the wall. This lasts for awhile then dampness comes through again.

A: Since you have tried various methods of waterproofing or dampproofing the inside of the wall, it will probably be necessary to excavate down to the foundation footings and apply a couple of coats of liquid asphalt dampproofing or hot tar. This would have to be applied after the wall has dried out and all the soil has been brushed off. It is also very likely that the condition is caused by the gutter downspout emptying into the ground around the affected wall area. If such is the case connect drain tile to the outlet and run the pipe to a dry well at least fifteen feet away from the foundations.

Removing Many Coats of Wax

Q: My bedroom door and an arm chair have both acquired, through the years, coats of waxes and polishes of all kinds. Now I would like to remove this accumulation without harming the finish underneath. How can I do it? Some of these waxes dried very hard.

A: Wipe a liberal quantity of turpentine over the surface with a cloth. For best results, d this at least twice.
